Evaluation Interview/Audition: Students will be evaluated to determine their skill level in playing and in reading music so they can be placed with other students who are about the same age and with a similar skill level.

Tuition: Ensemble tuition is due in full at the time of the evaluation interview/audition. There are no refunds. There are no make up lessons. Ensemble tuition does NOT include private lessons.

Group Classes: Class time may be changed if everyone in the group agrees and a studio is available.

Behavior and Attitude: We will do our best to provide a positive learning experience for all ensemble participants. Students must come to class prepared and ready to play. It is expected that all students will be respectful and courteous. Students who are displaying unacceptable behavior may be removed from the group at the discretion of the teacher or conservatory administrator.
